Planning and Zoning 101 Workshop

Tuesday, July 8th

Louisville Urban League

1535 W Broadway, Louisville, KY 40203

6:00 – 8:30pm

Facilitated by Center For Neighborhoods in partnership with Louisville Metro Planning and Design Services

What do neighborhood residents need to know about planning and design?

Let's get started...

- Introduction of Planning and Design Services
- Knowledge of definitions of planning and zoning terms
- Neighborhood Plans
- Description of each level of zoning and how to find zoning of property
- Zoning maps of neighborhoods
- Maps of Metro Council District and neighborhood boundaries
- Land use decision making
- Land Development Code
- Regulations for various nontraditional living arrangements (transitional & rehab housing)
- Fair Housing
- Explain Conditional Use Permits
- How to be notified of hearings or find information
- Q & A

The workshop will educate residents with the planning and zoning process. YOU will leave with a binder of information as a reference of the items discussed that will enable you to be an effective voice in the community and for your neighborhood. Refreshments Served.

Pre-registration for workshop is requested. Please contact John Hawkins 502.589.4343 or johnH@centerforneighborhoods.org to leave your name, address, telephone number or email address if you plan on attending.

One very important item that was brought up at the workshop is that the Land Development Code is in the process of being amended and is seeking public input. there will be a public hearing on August 11 at 1:00pm at the Old Jail Building 514 West Liberty. To make comments on the proposed amendments go to louisvilleky.gov click on Planning and Design. Click on Land Development Improvement Committee and then click on Proposed Amendments.

Also I want to offer my thanks to Cheri and her Council Colleagues for bringing this workshop to us, Jim Mims, Emily Liu and Mike Hill for taking time out of their evening to bring this information to us, Lisa Dettlinger and Center for Neighborhoods for Facilitating the workshop and Ben Richmond and the Louisville Urban League for hosting the event.

Also the Workshop was recorded and will be available online in the future. .. hope to see you at the July meeting on Tuesday.”

Bobby Hickey

Only a few days left to submit your comments on the proposed Round Two Land Development Code text amendments. Comments received by June 30th will be attached to materials that will be forwarded to Planning Commissioners prior to the August 11th public hearing. This is a great chance to let the Planning Commissioners hear what you have to say. Email comments directly to Michael.Hill@louisvilleky.gov.

National Montford Point Marine Association P.U.S.H. (Push Until Something Happens) Fundraiser

The National Montford Point Marine Association is a non-profit Veterans organization. The Association operates solely by volunteer services, donations and sponsorship from agencies that support the mission and purpose of NMPMA. They are collecting new and gently used shoes to raise funds to begin construction on the Montford Point Marines Memorial in July 2014 while providing shoes to people in need. The shoe collection Campaign will assist the Association in meeting the much anticipated goal of holding the ground breaking ceremony July 2014 for Phase 1 of the Memorial Project.

The challenge to accomplish their $1.7 million dollar goal requires financial and in-kind support for everyone. This memorial will serve to honor the sacrifices, dedication, perseverance, and bravery to the 20,000 African American men who trained on the hallowed ground of camp Montford Point and fought for the "Right to Fight" as United States Marines. It will be named Montford Point Marines Memorial, Lejeune Memorial Gardens, in Jacksonville, NC.

All kinds of shoes are needed. Tennis shoes, flip flops, heels, work boots flats June 30th is the drive. There is a drop box in the vestibule of First Virginia Avenue Missionary Baptist Church, 3601 Virginia Avenue from 10 a.m.-2:00 p.m. Monday-Friday. Press the button under the over-hang and our secretary should let you in. There will be contact information to answer any additional questions you may have.

Note: Deadline is now June 30th

Dedication Ceremony for the Chickasaw P.A.I.N.T. Project Monday, June 30, 2:00pm 1033 Cecil Avenue

Center For Neighborhoods invites the community to the dedication ceremony celebrating the installation of the first P.A.I.N.T. project in the Chickasaw neighborhood, "On the Road to Life – Challenge Your Self" by local artist, Victor Sweatt. The Chickasaw PAINT project in Louisville Metro Council District 5 is being completed in conjunction with two other PAINT projects located in the Parkland neighborhood.

Located on a vacant property at the corner of Cecil Avenue and Greenwood Ave, the theme of the mural, "On the Road to Life Challenge Your Self," focuses on history, education, and culture along with anti-drug and violence slogans.

"We hope that young people who visit this corner will have their curiosity sparked to want to find out just who these historical figures are that are depicted on the mural and their important contributions to our local history," said Councilwoman Cheri Bryant Hamilton (D-5). "We're glad that local youth were able to participate in this public art project and that they can point to it with a sense of pride that they helped beautify a vacant structure that was an eyesore in their neighborhood." A group of young folks, led by Bill Murphy (a volunteer with the Organization of Black Aerospace Professionals) and others from the Shawnee Arts and Cultural Center, assisted Mr. Sweatt in the installation of the mural.

This project was commissioned by the P.A.I.N.T. Program, an initiative of Center For Neighborhoods. P.A.I.N.T. - Producing Art in Neighborhoods Together.

To schedule an interview with the artist, Victor Sweatt, please contact Lisa Dettlinger, lisad@centerforneighborhoods.org or 502.589.0343.

The Shawnee Science Club working on their presentation for the SSEP Conference in Washington DC on July 2.
You can help them get there!

The Academy @ Shawnee Science Club is one of only 15 teams in the nation that has been selected to conduct an experiment aboard the International Space Station (ISS) this summer as part of the Student Spaceflight experiments Program (SSEP).

Their experiment will determine the fermentation rate of yeast in a microgravity environment. This honor includes an invitation to present their experiment at the annual SSEP conference at the Smithsonian's National Air and Space Museum in Washington DC on July 2.

Now, they just need to get there. The club is hoping to raise $5,000 to pay for 7 students and 2 teachers to attend the conference. They have put together a crowd funding site on Rocket Hub and are offering various "goods" for the different sponsorship levels, including a patch, t-shirt, and an astronaut's moon boot foot print sticker for your floor.

Top corporate sponsor can receive some of the yeast after it returns from outer space for use production of their beer, bread, etc. Shawnee Science teacher Adrian Armendariz says, 'We are hoping a local microbrewery will be interested in marketing some "Shawnee Space Brew.' This is a great opportunity to help local kids achieve their dreams and also create Louisville's own microgravity microbrew.' The link to help with funding and to learn more about the experiment is <http://www.rockethub.com/projects/43977>.

Conditional Use Permit Application for a New Rehabilitation Home in District 5

14CUP1020 - This is a request for a Conditional Use Permit for a rehabilitation home at 3321 West Market. The property previously operated as a boarding house and wants to change the licensing to a rehabilitation home.

The request was submitted on June 16, 2014. The pre-application process must be completed before there is a public hearing before the Board of Zoning Adjustment. (BOZA)

The applicant Jerry D. Watson 393 Goose Creek Court, Taylorsville, KY 40071 will also need to have a neighborhood meeting and invite the 1st and 2nd tier property owners and also the subscribers who requested information on any development in their district. July 2 is when the comments are due from the various agencies and then they will meet with staff to go over the comments. The formal meeting before BOZA cannot take place until all the above has been satisfied. It generally takes 3 to 4 months.
